

Helipad Inauguration in Sushant Golf City, Lucknow

On the pleasant afternoon of November 12th, Sushant Golf City was alive with the excitement of addition of a great feature to the township. A helipad was inaugurated at driving range by Mr Anerood Jagnauth, Prime Minister of Mauritius and his wife Mrs Sarojini Jagnauth; in presence of our Chairman Sir, Mr Sushil Ansal; Chairman of SSR Medical College, Mauritius, Mr R.P.N. Singh; Executive Director (Uttar Pradesh), Mr B B Singh and Vice President (Sales & Marketing), Mr Rajesh Rao.

Mr Sushil Ansal felicitated the prime minister and his wife with bouquet and a shawl. In his speech, Mr Anerood praised the introduction of Helipad Service in the township. He spoke words of compliment at the development that he saw in Sushant Golf city in the short time of ten years since its start. Later before snacks, Mr Ansal gave his autobiography 'Brick for Brick' to the prime minister as a memento.

Mr Anerood Jagnauth is one of the most successful prime ministers in the world, having served the office longer than anyone else has. He has been elected as a Prime Minister of Mauritius repeatedly five times between 1976 to 1991 and a total of seven times in his political career so far. He served as the President between 2003 to 2012 before being re-elected as the prime minister a seventh time. He is also the only Mauritian to have served as an elected member on each level of the as country. This shows his popularity in Mauritius and Sushant Golf City was truly grateful to have such a great man on its lands for Helipad Service inauguration
